

NEW ZEALAND

Part 1: watch the video and fill in the blanks :

This is a tale of two islands, and a tale of two _____, from very different worlds. This stunning, verdant, _____ on the far side of the world was the last large _____ to be settled by humans. In its journey from _____ to statehood, it wrestled with the first peoples' _____ to their _____, but along the way led the world in social reform. This is the story of the most _____ of all developed nations. This is the story of _____.

New Zealand is the most _____ country in the developed world, sitting on the south-western edge of the _____. It has the _____ of any significant habitable land mass, having never seen people until _____. For a country so young in historical terms, the story that led to the New Zealand of today is surprisingly full of significant and unique events, one of a blending of _____ and _____, and how a colony finally matured into a country charting its independent course in the _____.

Part 2: watch the video and answer the questions

1. Was New Zealand populated before the Middle Ages ?
2. Which people discovered New Zealand ?
3. When was New Zealand discovered ?
4. How was the history of New Zealand taught ?
5. What is the name of the culture of the settlers ?
6. What were their sources of food ?